8 PROCLAIMING THE WORD, PART I: FOUNDATIONS

Ms. Renee Bhatia, Christ the Redeemer,
Sterling, VA

A primary way we receive the life-giving Word of God is through the proclamation at Mass. In this workshop we will explore the role of the lector, the spirituality of proclamation, and the practical skills needed to be an effective lector.

18 PROCLAIMING THE WORD PART II: PRACTICUM

Ms. Renee Bhatia, Christ the Redeemer,
Sterling, VA

Once we know the foundations underlying the proclamation of the Word, we need to put it into practice. In this workshop we will videotape participants proclaiming the Word and offer constructive feedback. We will learn from both doing and observing. Come prepared to proclaim either Exodus 19: 2-6a or 1 Cor 10:16-17.

9 LITURGY UPDATE

Rev. Robert J. Jaskot, S.T.L.,
Archdiocese of Baltimore

An update on recent developments in liturgy, including the revision of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, and the issuance of the instruction, Redemptionis Sacramentum. We will consider the background, the issues, and some of the changes called for by these documents.

17 LITURGY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL!

Ms. Kathy Brown, Catholic Relief Services

If we are truly fed by the Eucharist, then we have to go out and live it. Join us for a thought-provoking discussion on how liturgy can engage your parishioners to be Eucharist for the world.

Keynote Session 8:45—10:15

Monsignor Ray East

Vicar for Evangelization
Archdiocese of Washington

Today we hear a lot about unbelief and skepticism, both from young people and adults. Let's take an honest look at the state of unbelief, and consider ways to revive, restore, and renew belief in Jesus, who raises us from death.
